Description:

A fine example of Pierre Mortier's map of the Lombardy region centered on Bergamo in Northern Italy.

Notes in the lower left corner of the map explain the details of French and Imperialist squads within the mountainous regions of Northern Italy. Included in the notes are the number of inhabitants, mules, cows, horses, and amount of gold at each of the main locations.

Main encampments such as Bergamo, Cluson, Calepio, Martinengo, and Romano are colored in red. Lago Di Como and Lago De Spino are featured on the map along with many small towns, rivers, and paths.

The map includes both a key and a scale of distance to the French, German and Italian communes in the lower right corner.
