Description:

Fine large format map of Pittsburg, which includes annotations, perhaps in preparation for the next edition of the map.

The map is colored by wards, and provides a fine large format image of the expanse of the City during its boom times.

The routes of Steam Railroads and Street Car lines are illustrated, as are bridges, wharves, public buildings, parks, churches, shools and other points of interest.

A Post Office, the Frank-Kneeland Machine Company and other points not printed on the map are noted in orange and blue ink.

Detailed Condition:

Loss of image at top left corner. Includes manuscript annotations, including several names in the left margin and redlined place names.
