Description:

Christian Nebehay's Excellent Facsimile of the Waldseemuller Globe Gores of 1507. The First Printed Globe and the First Map or Globe to Show America.

A fascinating skilled reproduction of one of the most famous maps of all time, made by Christian Nebehay, the Viennese antiquarian.

An example of this facsimile globe was presented to the Bavarian State Library along with the Waldseemuller gores that were sold to them in 1991. It was subsequently determined that that set of gores was an elaborate forgery.

Detailed Condition:

Small chip one of the bevels on the base of the stand.
