Description:

An Early Decorative Map of the Yucatan and Central America

Striking full color example of Ogilby's regional map, centered on the Yucatan, Guatemala and Honduras, and extending south to Costa Rica and Panama City and North to Mexico City (and showing most of Cuba).

This example appeared in Ogilby's fine work on America, based in large part on an English translation of De Nieuwe en Onbekende Wereld, published by Arnold Montanus, which was used by John Ogilby as the basis of his Complete History of America. Very large decorative cartouche and numerous sailing ships.
