Description:

Fine old color example of Sanson's 1656 double-page engraved map of Chile, from Peru to Patagonia and the Straits of Magellan.

The map is vertically centered on the Andes Mountains, focusing on the river systems, lakes and coastal features of Chile.

The map is based upon Alonso de Ovalle's large map of Chile, published in Rome in 1646. De Ovalle, author of Historica Relacion del Reyno de Chile (Rome 1646) was born in Chile in 1601. De Ovalle was born to an elite Buenos Aires family but elected to join the Society of Jesus in 1617. He became a successful missionary and rector of the "Colegio Seminario." He remained active among the Chilean Indians until 1641, when he traveled first to Spain and then Italy, where he remained until 1650, during
