Description:

Scarce first edition of this fine early map of the British Colonies in North America at the outset of the French & Indian War.

The map names and depicts many of the early boundary lines delineating the colonial charters, some with dates.

Some of the interesting features include a truncated Pennsylvania and oversized Virginia, as well as the massive stretch of land in North Carolina designated as Earl Granville's property, which extends to the Mississippi. An early appearance of Georgia. Nice detail in the Great Lakes region and Canada.

Extensive annotations in German, give details on the various American Colonies.
