Description:

North America Signed by a Rarely Seen Map Engraver

Rare mid-18th Century map of North America, engraved by I Buego in Edinburgh.

The map shows the British Colonies extending from the Atlantic to the Rocky Mountains. East and West Florida are shown, as are the Indian Tribes east of the Mississippi River.

In the west, the Rio Grande is the Nueces River and Norte River further to the north, extending to St. Jerome, St. Laurence and Santa Fe New Mexico, with numerous Indian Tribes noted between the Missouri River and the Santa Fe.

Further north, the River of the West is shown, with its speculative source as Pike's Lake.

On the northwest coast, the discoveries of Sir Francis Drake on the California coastline are combined with the mythical discoveries of Martin D'Aguilar and Jane de Fuca.

Detailed Condition:

Discoloration at centerfold and some restoration work.
