Description:

Decorative map of America including California as an Island, a single open Great Lake directly connected to the St. Lawrence, Strait of Anian and no Mississippi River details north of the mid-continent. The map also includes several curious east to west mountains.

The map illustrated an early account of the New World published by Vander Aa, one of the most prolific compilers of information on the early explorations to America, Asia and Africa.

A finely executed copper plate engraving with decorative cartouche.
