Description:

Interesting map of the US and Canada at the end of the French & Indian War, based upon John Mitchell's seminal map of 1755.

The map shows the many French and English Forts in the Mississippi and Ohio Valleys, along with numerous Indian Tribes on either side of the Mississippi River. Nice detail throughout the map. This map appeared in the 1763 edition of the History of the War in the Annual Register.

Include a large inset showing Florida as an Archipelago. Virginia, the Carolinas and Georgia extend to the Mississippi, although Pennsylvania extends west only to Ft. Pitt.

Detailed Condition:

Minor offsetting.
