Description:

Nice example of Vander Aa's decorative map of the Carolinas, illustrating the travel and discoveries of Ponce De Leon.

The map is based upon the earlier Hondius-Mercator map of the same region, with a few later influences. There is no waterfall into the upper lake and Chicola is a town on the Jordaan River. Two French forts built by Ribaut in 1562 and Laudonniere in 1564 are both titled Karel Slot. Spectacular decorative cartouche.

The map illustrated an early account of the New World published by Vander Aa, one of the most prolific compilers of information on the early explorations to America, Asia and Africa. A finely executed copper plate engraving with decorative cartouche.
