Description:

A decorative full color example of the first edition of Jansson's map of the Southeast. This map is based on the larger 1606 Mercator-Hondius map. This map covers an area from the mouth of the Chesapeake bay to Georgia. On this map a number of settlements are named, including Jamestown (est 1609) & Newport News (est 1621). One of the great early obtainable regional maps. Includes the marvelous mythical lakes in the interior and other conjectural cartography of the time. Large cartouche, 2 coasts of arms, 2 compass roses and 3 sailing ships. French text on the verso. A striking example of this highly desirable map. Burden 254.
