Description:

Scarce early map of the Carolinas, hand colored by counties. Primitive county configurations still appear in the west. Shows towns, roads, rivers, mountains, lakes, post offices, court houses, rivers, Indian Villages, forts, etc. Excellent plan of Charleston, predating the earliest plan to appear in an American Atlas. Highly detailed map, showing towns, Indian Villages, forts, roads, rivers, mountains, lakes, etc. One of the earliest separate maps of these states published outside of America. Gorgeous full color example. Full color examples are rare on the market.
