Description:

Chile on the Eve of Complete Independence

Nice example of Buchon's map of Chile, published in Paris in 1825, the year before last Spanish troops surrendered and the Chiloé Archipelago was incorporated into the Chilean Republic.

The map covers Chile and some of Patagonia below, providing excellent detail in a region for which the maps were still very incomplete and inaccurate, especially in the southern regions of the country.

Overall plate size is 24 x 17 inches, surrounded by text describing the state, its population, governors, religion, education, commerce, climate topography and other details.
