Description:

Scarce regional map of parts of Poland and Ukraine.

The map shows the Kingdom of Galicia and Lodomeria, which was a crown land of the Habsburg Monarchy, acquired during the first partition of Poland and extending southeast to Bukowina, which is shown here shortly before the beginning of the Turkish occupation in 1769.

The map shows major cities, villages, towns, hamlets, post routes, and post offices are marked on the map, with a French key to the symbols.
