Description:

Rare variant edition of this decorative regional map of Texas, California and the southwest, featuring Texas in its Republic configuration, with stovepipe reaching to Wyoming and Colorado.

Upper California is shown with the Gold Regions highlighted in gold, a pre-Gadsden border with Mexico and a host of other contemporary details. Numerous Indian tribes named throughout the southwest. Early routes through Texas and the west are shown. Includes a number of forts and outposts in Texas and Upper California.

The very rare edition includes only two decorative vignettes, pre-dating the gold rush vignette present in most examples of the map.

Only the second time we have every seen this variant edition.
