Civil Engineer Niagara Falls N.Y. 1891

The map has an early manuscript note that Fort Niagara was "Surrendered to the United States August 11, 1796."

The map was made by Niagara Falls civil engineer W.C. Johnson for Peter A. Porter, a noteworthy figure in local history, and publisher of the Niagara Falls Gazette from 1880 to 1895.

Provenance

Ex Rochester Historical Society, with their ink stamp on verso and their red-oval inventory sticker on recto in the lower right corner. Sold by them through Cottone Auctions in December 2018.

Detailed Condition:

Slight loss at upper right corner, only affecting the neatline. Some of the old folds lightly worn. Backed on linen. Red oval inventory sticker of the Rochester Historical Society in the lower right corner.
