Description:

Original color example map of Connecticut and Rhode Island, from an early edition of Bradford's Comprehensive Atlas.

The map is colored by counties and shows towns, rivers, lakes, bays, harbors, islands and other important places. Block Island and Long Island appear prominently. Bradford's Comprehensive Atlas launched him as one of the prominent cartographic publishers of the period. This and his larger atlases, published first in 1838, were one of the most popular of the period.
