Description:

An Exceptional View of Seattle By One of its Most Famous Commercial Artists

Fine example of Irwin Field's scarce pictorial view of Seattle, drawn for the Seattle Department Store Marshall Field & Company dba Frederick & Nelson in 1968.

The view is a remarkable amalgam of whimsical tidbits of Seattle history and current events,

The present example is in unusually fine condition and seems to be some kind of a deluxe edition, printed on blue paper (the other examples we have seen are printed on yellow paper and without the same fine printing quality).

Irwin Caplan's career spanned 5 decades and included several syndicated series. His work has appeared in major publications such as Time and Life, and the Saturday Evening Post (Famous Last Words).
