Description:

Rare large lithographic plan of Buda and Pest by Jozsef Csintalan published by Ludvig von Landerer in Pesth (Budapest).

A rare early lithographic plan and an unusually large lithographic stone.

The plan is oriented with west at the top, extending into the suburbs of Obuda, Terézváros, Józsefváros and Ferencváros.

The legend appears in both Hungarian and German, framed in a classicist border.

This would appear to be the first edition, with a later undated edition appearing in the 1830s.

The reference to Ferdinand Tomala suggests he was likely the publishers. He would later publish the Magazin für Kunst, Geographie und Musik in Budapest.
