Description:

A Decorative Map of the Shipping Lines of East Asia

Fine large format map of the eastern part of Asia, promoting the lines of the Java-China Japan Line.

The map shows shipping routes, ports of call and services of the Java-China Japan Line.

Includes regular passenger services from and to Java & Bali, Philippines & China, with through bookings to & from Japan, U.S.A. & Europe.

The Java-China Japan Line was a Dutch owned shipping line, with operations in East Asia. The company began passenger services in 1902. By 1931, the line had 13 ships regularly plying the waters of East Asia.
