Description:

Antique Map of Showing Arctic Exploration Routes of John Ross, William Edward Parry and John Franklin

Scarce map of the Arctic regions, illustrating the discoveries of a number of early 19th Century English explorers.

The map meticulously illustrates the outbound and return routes of each of the explorers, with a large inset of Franklin's Journey from Coppermine River, to The Head of Bathurst Inlet, and Return by Hood's River.

The routes are shown in different colors:

- Red for Parry in 1821-22
- Orange for Ross 1818
- Yellow for Parry 1818-19
- Franklin's route also in yellow

Rarity

The map apparently only appeared in some of the late Thomson Atlases and is rare on the market. This is
