Unrecorded Antique Map of the South During the War of 1812

Fine map of the Southern United States, issued during the War of 1812.

The map was issued in October 1814, in the midst of the peace negotiations in Ghent (August to December 1814), which resulted in the Treaty of Ghent, which was signed on December 24, 1814, ending the war.

The map extends from the Maryland, Pennsylvania Border to the northeastern part of Georgia, covering the states of North Carolina, South Carolina, Virginia, Delaware and Maryland in fine detail.

This is the second edition of the map, which first appeared under the title The Marches of Lord Cornwallis
