Description:

The Story of Exodus on Blaeu's Map of the Holy Land

Fine old color example of Blaeu's map of the Holy Land.

At the right, the map shows the aftermath of Moses and the children of Israel crossing the Red Sea, with Moses atop a rock at the right, watching the closing of the Sea and Pharaoh's army's inundated.

Further to the right, a scene shows the encampment at the foot of Mount Sinai, with Moses in the glow of the burning bush, receiving the Ten Commandments.

Includes large cartouche, two compass roses, sea monsters and other embellishments. One of the most decorative Holy Land maps of the period. Oriented with west at the top.
