Description:

An Early General Land Office Map of New Mexico Territory -- Manuscript Addition of the Jicarilla Apache Reservation

Scarce large format map of New Mexico Territory, published by the General Land Office.

The present example adds the Jicarilla Apache Reservation in Yellow, which had been created by on February 11, 1887, shortly after the printing of the map. In the Mescalero Apache Reservation, the elevation of several mountains are shown

The map shows railroads (completed and proposed), Railroad and Private land grants, military reservations, county boundaries, military and Indian reservations, national forests, confirmed private land claims, boundaries of unconfirmed private land claims, confirmed claims needing new boundary lines, and U.S. reservoirs shown in color.
