Description:

Rare Dublin edition of John Stockdale's map of British America.

The map is centered on the Great Lakes and Hudsons Bay. The course of the Mississippi River is quite fascinating, and titled "Miiskoue-sipi or Red R." and a bit further south, "Missi-sipi."

The map extends from Greenland across the continent to Great Slave Lake (here called Arathapescow Lake). The Copper, Dog Ribb'd, and Northern Indians are shown. Shows a small portion of coastline far to the north on the Beaufort Sea at the delta of the Copper River.

A later edition was issued J. Charles imprint in 1814.

Detailed Condition:

Minor fold split at lower centerfold.
