Description:

Antique folding map of London, issued for use by tourists and locals, published around 1890 by G.W. Bacon in London.

Parks, major train stations, buildings, postal codes (e.g., EC, WC, NW) all picked out with hand-coloring.

Attractive map of Victorian London.

Detailed Condition:

Old linen fraying along a few folds, though in all cases easily repairable. This example mounted by Letts, with original green cloth folder. Some small staining in the lower part of the map.
