Description:

Rare Astrological Broadside

The image shows a series of 12 astrological signs, with a dedication to Francesco Maria Zambecari, a member of an important noble family in Bologna.

Giuseppe Rosaccio was born in Pordenone around 1530. He graduated in philosophy and medicine at the University of Padua. He worked as a cosmographer, historian, cartographer, astronomer, astrologer, physician, traveller, art chronicler, encyclopedist, and even as a bookseller.

Pronostico Perpetuo Di Gioseppe Rosaccio Dottore In Filosofia et Medicina Cavato Da Segni Del SOle della Luna et delle Stele qual Serve Inntutte le Parte Del Mondo

In 1606 he obtained the privilege of printing his works from the Grand Duke of Tuscany. However, between 1607 and 1608 he worked in Bologna, carrying out his activity as a street doctor and astrologer. Thanks to the protection of cardinal Benedetto Giustiniani, Rosaccio was able to defend himself from the attacks of the Bologna Academy, who considered him a charlatan.
