Description:

French edition Carey & Lea's map, the first map of Michigan Territory. Virtually no settlements in the interior and the upper peninsula, with most of the towns concentrated on the southeast border. The remainder is Indian Territory, w/notes on Portages. Includes Indian Settlements, and a few early counties, including Monroe, Oakland, DeWayne and Macomb. Early roads shown and some settlements on Lake St. Claire and Lake Erie, along with Ft Brown and Camp Smith south of Green Bay. A few pinholes, else a very nice example of this increasingly hard to find early map of Michigan. Surrounded by text describing Michigan Territory. A nice example, with a bit of waterstaining in the upper margin and minor soiling in the map. Ordinarily a $750.00 map.
