Description:

Exceptional Old Color Example!

Fine old color example of D'Anville's map of the Portuguese controlled regions of Western Australia, including Angola, with a text description of the Portuguese discoveries in the region, introduction of Christianity, fortifications, etc.

The map is quite rare, we note only one other example offered for sale in a dealer catalog in the past 30 years.

Includes a section of French text related to the Portuguese and their colonization of Angola and the surrounding territories. They are mentioned as the introducers of Christianity into Angola. Fortresses of the Portuguese are noted on the map with a special symbol.
