Official Centennial Map of Texas Daughters of the Republic of Texas

Stock#:   62607
Map Maker: Cahoon

Date: 1934
Place: Dallas ?
Color: Color
Condition: VG+
Size: 32 x 23.5 inches

Price: SOLD

Description:

Decorative map of Texas, published by the Daughters of the Republic of Texas and lithographed by Utter & Evans and "produced, published and copyrighted" by C.M. Burnett.

The map was conceived by Curtiss Pruett and notes that it was distributed by the Texas Power & Light Company.

The artist is noted as Guy F. Cahoon.

The map of Texas, including cities, roads, wildlife, and historic events, is surrounded by portraits of icons Stephen F. Austin, Mirabeau B. Lamar, Anson Jones, Colonel Fannin, Ben Milam, Col. David Crockett, Col. William B. Travis, Deaf Smith, and General Sam Houston.

Officially endorsed by the Texas Centennial Commission.

Detailed Condition: