Description:

Scarce early map of the Northeastern United States. Includes an early appearance of Michigan Territory, with excellent detail. Also the topographical details in the map are superb, evidencing an early example of what would become the trademark of 19th Century German maps. The map appeared in a very early example of Steiler's Hand-Atlas, one of the most prolific works of the 19th and 20th Centuries. Includes Indian Tribes, canals, and a host of other details. Extends A nice example of a scarce map. from the Chesapeake to Maine and from Lake Michigan to Kentucky. A nice example of a scarce map.
