Description:

A Missionary Educational Map of the Caribbean for Children

Fine large format map of the Caribbean, intended as an educational tool for church school children, published by the Friendship Press of New York City.

The artist, Dr. Gilbert Q. LeSourd, would later serve as Associate Secretary of the Missionary Education Movement. It was likely created to illustrate Children of Sea and Sun; a course on the Caribbean islands for primary boys and girls by Mabel Garrett Wagner, which was also published by the Friendship Press in 1930 (Copyright #12675), with G.Q. LeSourd named in the copyright.

The large map is essentially a blank template for illustration by students. The smaller title map includes additional details, including inset vignettes of:

- Cathedral - Santiago de Cuba
- Morro Castle - Santiago de Cuba
- A Dominican Family
- A Mission Hospital in Porto Rico
- Bluebeard's Castle - St. Thomas, VI
- An Early Danish House - Virgin Islands
- Motor Bus Travel in Porto Rico
- Santo Domingo - Old Gateway
- Tuberculosis Hospital in Ponce
