Description:

The Most Dramatic Image of Commodore Perry Landing on Japanese Soil.

Exceptional antique lithograph of Perry's first landing in Japan. The print is the most dramatic of Perry's first landing in Japan, and shows a flotilla of American barges, with all of the military pageant that Perry was famous for, including Marines in formation next to the Japanese delegation. Perry's steamboats can be seen in the background; in the foreground are Japanese official launches.

The full title of the lithograph is: "First Landing of Americans in Japan, under Commodore M. C. Perry at Gore-Hama July 14th 1853. To Commodore M.C. Perry, Officers & men of the Japan Expedition, this Print is respectfully dedicated by their Obt. Servts Heine & Brown"

This lithograph comes from Heine's set of six elephant folio-sized hand-colored prints recording Commodore Perry's voyage to Japan in 1853. The complete Heine set retails for around $150,000. Heine also produced a smaller work titled Graphic Scenes of the Japan Expedition, which costs much less and was issued in 1856.

The following titles comprise the complete set of six lithographs:

- "Passing the Rubicon. Lieut. S. Bent in the 'Mississippi's' First Cutter Forcing his way through a Fleet of Japanese Boats while Surveying the Bay of Yedo, Japan, July 11th, 1853...." Printed by Sarony & Co, dated 1855.
- "First Landing of Americans in Japan. Under Commodore M.C. Perry at Gore-Hama July 14th,
