Description:

Rare Early Depiction of "Minesota" Territory

Decorative map of the United States, published during the Mexican War.

Of particular note, the map is one of the earliest printed maps to show Minnesota Territory (called "Minesota" on the map), which would not become a territory until March 3, 1849.

The map includes a large Oregon Territory, with the area to the northwest claimed by the United States in British Columbia identified. Massive Nebraska Territory, Minnesota Territory, Utah Territory, New Mexico Territory and Indian Territory. The map highlights the "Route of the Oregon Emigrants."

The map is surmounted by portraits of George Washington, General Zachary Taylor and General Winfield
