Description:

A Rare Late Edition by Wyld

Detailed map of the Upper Indian provinces, extending to Tibet in the North and the Bay of Bengal in the South.

Th map was drawn by James Rennell F.R.S., Surveyor General of India, and engraved from the original drawing in the Possession of the East India Company. The map includes a great amount of detail and shows roads and military outposts.

Cartouche shows a bearded sea god resting his arm on a bull's head, and an alligator and leopard are beside him. At right, an Indian woman holds a bowl over a kneeling man, as two other men look on.
