Description:

One of Bauerkeller's Earliest and Rarest Maps

Important early relief map of Switzerland, published by the Bauerkeller & Cie. in Paris in 1842.

The present map is one of Bauerkeller's earliest printed relief maps, capturing the complex details of the Swiss mountains and valleys in an extraordinary and graphically distinct manner.

The present example would appear to be a unique example, employing a different color scheme than other surviving examples.

Rarity

OCLC locates 2 known examples (British Library and Bibliotheque National de France). The Bibliotheque de Geneve also holds a copy.
