Description:

Marvelous highly detailed map of a part of Mexico, extending from Mazatlan and Zacatecas in the North to Valladolid and the Tetela Rio in the South, including Guanajuato and all of Guadalajara. Inclues mountains, lakes, towns, roads, rivers, and a host of other details. One of the most detailed regional maps of the period.

From Vandermaelen's remarkable 6 volume atlas, which if combined as globe gores forms an immense globe. Vandermaelen accomplished the first atlas mapping of the world on a uniform scale. His treatment of the Western US is a landmark in the history the cartography of the Western US, undertaking to map in 20 sheets a region which American publishers were virtually ignoring.

Detailed Condition:
A bit of foxing, but a nice example.
