Description:

Interesting mid 18th Century map of North America, published by Robert De Vaugondy.

The map shows Quivira, Nouvelle Albion, P. de Drake, etc., on the West Coast of North America, which extends North to C. Blanc and shows the inland river.

A number of western Indian Tribes are named. Floride is shown along the Texas coastline. The Mississippi River is moved considerably west of its correct location. The Great Lakes are shown in a still primitive fashion.

The Florida Peninsula takes on a curious shape. A number of place names along the Rio Grande and in the Southwest.

Detailed Condition:

Old outline hand-color.
