Description:

This facsimile reproduction of Lorenz Fries' 1530 Carta marina, published in Munich in 1926, is the only known large-scale facsimile of that important world map.

Fries began work on a re-issue of Martin Waldseemüller's famous 1516 wall map (likewise called Carta marina) after completing work on the 1522 edition of Ptolemy.

Fries' map was apparently completed in 1525, but no complete example of that edition exists. See, Leo Bagrow [Fragments of the "Carta Marina by Laurentius Fries, 1524, IM XIV ('S-Gravenhage: Mouton & Co., 1959), p.111-2 (ill)] about the fragments in the University of Leiden Library.

The only known example of the 1530 map is held in the Bayerische Staatsbibliothek, Munich.

Detailed Condition:

Sheets joined, dissected, and mounted on linen.
