Description:

Nice old color example of Blaeu's regional map of Southern Holland.

The map shows the estuary of the River Maas and extends from 's-Gravenhage to Gouda in the north and from Ouddorp to Steenberghe in the south. Cities, such as Rotterdam, Delft, and Brielle are depicted with miniature bird's-eye plans.

A compass rose orients north to the top right, and the map is further adorned with sailing ships and a strapwork title cartouche featuring fish.

Detailed Condition:

Old Color. Dampstain at top left and right corners and some color offsetting.
