Description:

Chinese Reporting on the May 1968 Uprising in France

Two Chinese cultural Revolution Maps printed on a single sheet (back to back), published following the May Uprising in France in 1968.

The map illustrates France as dominated by the worker's uprising, including strikes, interruption of train lines, harbors and airports.

[Fagu di tu - Faguo ren min ge ming dou zheng yi tu]

The May Uprising in France was a student/worker movement, which resulted in massive nationwide strikes, which paralyzed the country. The Communist Party sought to utilize the uprising as propaganda for the spread of communism and the inevitable defeat of imperialism, capitalism and colonialism.
