Description:

Striking 1844 town plan of Vienna, with vignettes showing ten major churches and buildings.

The map is very detailed, showing the old city surrounded by a fortified gap, with this being encircled by the new city. Detail extends to the north to the Danube.. The Au-Garten is shown, as are many other monuments. Featured above and below the map are vignettes of Stephans-Kirche, the temple in the people's garden, and the Hofftheater, among other important buildings.

This map appeared in Meyer's Grosser Hand-Atlas uber alle Theile der Erde in 170 Karten, an important mid-19th-century German atlas.
