Description:

Nice example of the map of Texas, the Southwest, Upper California and Mexico, from Doctor Robertson's History of America.

Extends from the Harbor of Sir Francis Drake (San Francisco) and the Farallones to New Orleans in the North and to Guatemala, Vera Cruz and Yucatan in the South. The Channel Islands are named in California.

Nice detail north of the Rio of the Apostles (Gila River) and along the North River of New Mexico or Rio Bravo (Rio Grande). Much of Texas is label Great Space of Land Unknown. Tepas is named, and includes some early Spanish Settlements and Rivers, along with Bahia de St. Bernard and details of La Salle's Settlement in 1685. Several Presidios are also shown.

Includes large inset of Mexico City, cartouche and compass rose.
