Description:

Attractive double page map of Europe, colored by countireis. Includes statistical tables for the principal countries, kingdoms, empires and states of Europe, the names, titles and other details regarding the European Princes, details on the various armies and navies, governments, religions, sizes, demographics and populations of the 100 largest cities (from London at 2.3 Million to Basle at 24,000). One of the most interesting American published atlas maps of Europe of the period. A few repaired minor tears at the top of the image, but still an attractive example. Normally a $150.00 map.
