Description:

This is a reduced-sized facsimile of Lorenz Fries' 1530 Carta marina, probably related to the reproduction that was published in Munich in 1926.

Fries began work on a re-issue of Martin Waldseemüller's famous 1516 wall map (likewise called Carta marina) after completing work on the 1522 edition of Ptolemy.

Fries' map was apparently completed in 1525, but no complete example of that edition exists. See, Leo Bagrow [Fragments of the "Carta Marina by Laurentius Fries, 1524, IM XIV ('S-Gravenhage: Mouton & Co., 1959), p.111-2 (ill)] about the fragments in the University of Leiden Library.

The only known example of the 1530 map is held in the Bayerische Staatsbibliothek, Munich.

Detailed Condition:

Facsimile. Dissected and laid on original linen. Some minor fading at folds.
