Description:

A striking map of Sweden and Norway, published by John Arrowsmith. This map shows the countries up to the Finnish border, with the northernmost bits shown in the inset. Many settlements, roads, geomorphological features, rivers, and more are all shown. The lakes of Sweden and mountains and fjords of Norway fade into the map in this elegant design. Parts of adjacent Finland and Denmark are shown. The various regions of Sweden and Norway are named, with Finland, Nordland, Lapland, and Umea in the inset.

This map is well designed and contains extensive information and detail, typical of Arrowsmith's maps. In all, it is a clear map of two Scandinavian kingdoms from the mid-19th century, with Norway now independent and Sweden diminishing in power.

The map appeared in John Arrowsmith's London Atlas.
