Description:

Very detailed British Admiralty chart of Vancouver Island, Puget Sound, and the Straits of Juan de Fuca and Georgia.

The map was originally laid down by Captain G. H. Richards of the Royal Navy with major revisions in November of 1890 and February of 1900.

Like many of the later Admiralty charts, this one includes detailed mapping of the interior with topography rendered and inland lakes and rivers shown.

Coastal profiles of areas on the Pacific Coast of Vancouver Island are given in the lower-left corner. Tidal tables are provided in the upper right.
