Description:

Official NASA-Boeing Documentary Photograph of the Apollo 15 Lunar Rover Vehicle.

Large format glossy color photograph of the Lunar Rover Vehicle, presumably at the Boeing assembly facility in Huntsville, Alabama.

This large photograph of the LRV is substantially bigger than other similar original photographs of the vehicle. Many of the components of the LRV are visible in fairly good detail, including the unusual low-g mesh wheels.

Provenance

From the collection of a veteran of Boeing's Public Relations and Advertising Department who joined the company in 1961.
