Description:

Scarce large format map of Pomerania and Szczecin, including the northwestern part of Poland, published by Le Rouge in Paris.

Includes several roads, as well as towns, rivers, woods and lakes and other local details.

The map is based on early maps by Nicolas Sanson and Alexis Hubert Jaillot. The map shows the territory of the former Pomeranian Duchy with a traditional division into individual lands and principalities. The borders of the territories belonging to Sweden and Prussia are also marked. In the upper right corner there is a note in French concerning the death of Bogusław XIV, the last Pomeranian prince, and information about the division of the principality between Sweden (yellow) and Prussia (green).

Detailed Condition:

Minor soiling. A few marginal tears, repaired on verso.
