Description:

Nice vintage railroad map of the United States featuring the Union Pacific Railroad System. The map was published for the UPRR by Rand McNally & Co. in 1931.

The map has two insets in the lower corners featuring the Transatlantic and Transpacific connections of to the system.

The map also labels the National Parks of the time.

Five different kinds of railroads are featured: Double Track, Single Track, and Proposed Lines (Union Pacific Railroad Company, Oregon Short Line R.R. Company, Oregon-Washington R.R. & Nav. Co., Los Angeles & Salt Lake R.R. Company; St. Joseph and Grand Island Ry. Co., and Saratoga and Encampment Valley R.R. Co.); the map also shows Double and Single Track connections over which Through Trains and Through Sleeping Cars are operated.

Rumsey (11259) has a 1942 edition in which airfields are shown. Interestingly, that edition seems geared toward World War II servicemen.
